"If I say, 'Don't worry, I'm on it,' there's a 98% chance I'm referring to my couch."

Convertible Car

I live in New Jersey and I'm used to having people cut me off on the highway, but this one time I was cut off by a convertible; he missed my car by inches, and the driver made an obscene gesture to boot.

Still steamed, I noticed that we had gotten off at the same exit and the convertible's driver had pulled into an office complex parking lot.

I pulled my car over and waited for the driver to leave the parking lot and enter the building. Then I entered the lot and pulled up next to the car.

Well, as my luck would have it, I had just made a stop at the supermarket and had a loaf of bread that I was willing to donate to the cause.

So I did.

I tore up a few slices of bread and threw the pieces into the front and back seats of the open convertible. Then I drove off out of the lot and pulled off across the street to watch.

It didn't take long for the seagulls to start descending...

Typing Job

My sister answered an advertisement for a typist to work on a book about weather forecasting. She gave her typing speed as: "Approximately 55 w.p.m. with occasional gusts of 60 to 65 w.p.m."

She got the job.

Tractors

A little girl was watching her daddy repair his tractor.

She asked her mother, "What happens to old tractors when they finally stop working?"

Sighing, her mother answered, "Someone sells them to your father, dear."

Golden Retriever

One day, I was heading out the front door with my eight-month old daughter. Our golden retriever, Hurley, bolted in front of us and took off down the driveway.

Since "Come!" is the command he's least likely to obey, I wasn't looking forward to going after him with baby in tow.

As he approached the end of the driveway, I decided to try a different approach and blurted out, "Wait! You need your leash!"

Without hesitation, Hurley stopped in his tracks, turned around and came back into the house.

Groaner

A bear walks into a bar. The bartender asks, "So what are ya having there big fella?"

The bear says, "Give me a.....beer."

The bartender says, "What's with the big pause?"

The bear throws his arms up in the air and says, "I don't know I was born with them."
