Sweets

I finally figured out the difference between cupcakes, muffins and scones.

They're exactly the same except you have to suck the moisture out of the cupcakes to turn them into muffins.

Then you leave them sitting on the counter for about a month to turn them into scones.

New Computer

Military leaders succeed in building a computer able to solve any strategic or tactical problem.

They are assembled in front of the new machine and instructed to feed a difficult tactical problem into it.

They describe a hypothetical situation to the computer and then ask the pivotal question,

-NOTICE-

Everyone at Grand General wishes to thank you for your business by providing the "Grand Laffs" publication. If you do not wish to receive "Grand Laffs," please call, fax or e-mail us and we will honor your request.

"attack or retreat?"

The computer hums away for an hour and then comes up with the answer, "YES."

The generals all look at each other, somewhat stupefied. Finally one of them submits a second request to the computer, "YES WHAT?"

Instantly the computer responded, "YES SIR."

Stalker

I think my neighbor is stalking me as she's been googling my name on her computer...

I saw it through my telescope last night.

Sharing

Catching her in the act, the grandmother confronted her 3-year old granddaughter. "Are you eating your little sister's grapes?"

"No," the 3-year old innocently replied, "I'm helping her share."

Chores

My sister's husband always teases her about her lack of interest in household chores. One day he came home with a gag gift, a refrigerator magnet that read, "Martha Stewart doesn't live here."

The next day he came home to find the magnet holding up a slip of paper. The note read, "Neither does Bob Vila."

Cheesecake

Occasionally at the restaurant where I work there are extra desserts and the staff are given some to take home. Once I brought home two pieces of cheesecake for my son and daughter. Katie had a piece that evening.

The next day her older brother found her watching TV and eating more cheesecake.

"Are you eating my cheesecake?" he asked.

"Oh, no," she replied sweetly, "I ate yours yesterday."
