"I like to hold hands at the movies, which always seems to startle strangers."

Notre Dame

Our pastor, an avid football fan, had to hear confessions on Saturday during an important Nebraska/Notre Dame game. When a man had finished his confession, the priest asked him, "Are you by any chance going to be around the church for awhile?"

"Yes, Father, as a matter of fact I will be. I'm painting the church and I'll be here all afternoon." "Would you mind then," the priest asked, "coming back in now and then and keeping me posted on the game?"

"Okay," he replied.

Later, the priest slid open the confessional grill and heard, "Father, my last confession was 30 minutes ago. Since then I haven't done anything, and neither has Notre Dame."

Farmer

There was a fellow walking along a country road when he came upon a farmer working in his field. The man called out to the farmer and asked him how long it would take him to get to the next town.

The farmer didn't answer. So after waiting a bit, the fellow started walking down the road again.

After the man had walked about a 100 yards or so, the farmer yelled to him and said, "About twenty minutes."

Confused, the man turned back toward the farmer and inquired, "Why didn't you tell me that when I asked you earlier?"

"Well," said the farmer, "I didn't know how fast you could walk before I watched you."

"Honey!" he called excitedly. You've got to come here and see what I found in the wall.

I ran in and quickly realized that his next task would be to fix the hole that now led into the back side of our medicine cabinet in the bathroom.

Telephone Call

A woman had been talking on the phone for about half an hour, and then she hung up.

"Wow," said her husband, "that was short. You usually talk for two hours. What happened?"

"Wrong number," replied the wife.

Olympics

Would someone go to the kitchen and bring me some Doritos? I'm busy yelling at world class Olympic athletes to swim faster.
