"Sometimes it takes me all day to get nothing done."

Wiggly Baby

My eleven month old was sitting in her high chair, twisting and moving all over the place. My wife said to me, "Straighten her up."

I looked at my daughter and said, "Young lady, what are you doing with your life? Do you want to be this way forever? It's time to grow up."

My wife didn't find it as amusing as I did.

Bible Study

A father was reading the Bible to his young daughter before bedtime one night. He was on the first chapter of Genesis.

"In the beginning, the world was without form and void," the father read. "And God said, 'Let there be light.' And God separated the light from the dark."

"I know what happens next!" the little girl exclaimed excitedly.

"What happens next?" asked the father, smiling.

The girl replied, "God did two loads of laundry."

Frozen Chicken

I could not find a frozen chicken big enough for my family dinner. I asked the young man behind the butcher counter if these chickens got any larger?

He replied, "I'm afraid not, they are all dead."

Southern Charm

Two delicate flowers of Southern womanhood were conversing on the porch swing of a large white-pillared mansion.

The first woman said, "When my first child was born, my husband built this beautiful mansion for me."

The second woman commented, "Well, isn't that nice."

The first woman continued "When my second child was born, my husband bought me that fine Cadillac automobile you see parked in the drive."

Again, the second woman commented, "Well, isn't that nice."

The first woman boasted "Then, when my third child was born, my husband bought me this exquisite diamond bracelet."

Yet again, the second woman commented "Well, isn't that nice."

The first woman then asked her companion, "What did your husband buy for you when you had your first child?"

The second woman replied "My husband sent me to Charm School."

"Charm School!" the first woman cried. "Land sakes, child, what on Earth for?"

The second woman responded, "So that instead of saying 'who cares?', I learned to say 'Well, isn't that nice.'"
