CPR Class

Toward the end of our senior year in high school, we were required to take a CPR course. The class used the well known mannequin victim, Resusci-Annie, to practice. Typical of most models, this Resusci-Annie was only a torso, to allow for storage in a carrying case.

The class went off in groups to practice. As instructed, one of my classmates gently shook the doll and asked, "Are you all right?"

He then put his ear over the mannequin's mouth to listen for breathing. Suddenly he turned to the instructor and exclaimed, "She said she can't feel her legs!"

Laptop Computer

My laptop was driving me crazy. "The A, E, and I keys always stick," I complained to a friend.

She quickly diagnosed the problem, "Your computer is suffering from irritable vowel syndrome."

Sunday Sermon

Mo attends a revival and listens to the sermon. After a while, the pastor asks anyone with needs to come forward and be prayed over. Mo gets in line and when it's his turn, the pastor asks, "Mo, what do you want me to pray about?"

Mo says, "Pastor, I need you to pray for my hearing."

So the pastor puts one finger in Mo's ear and the other hand on top of his head and prays for a while. He removes his hands and asks, "Mo, how's your hearing now?"

Mo says, "I don't know pastor, it's not until next Monday."

Gas Station

On my first day working at the gas station, I watched a senior co-worker measure the level of gasoline in the underground tanks by lowering a giant measuring stick down into them.

"What would happen if I threw a lit match into the hole?" I joked.

"It would go out," he replied very matter-of-factly.

"Really?" I asked, surprised to hear that. "Is there a lack of oxygen down there or some safety device that would extinguish it before the fumes ignited?"

"No," my co-worker continued. "The force from the explosion would blow out the match."

Long Password

During a recent password audit by a company, it was found that an employee was using the following password: "MickeyMinniePlutoHueyLouieDeweyDonaldGoofySacramento."

When asked why they had such a long password, the employee rolled their eyes and said, "Hello! It has to be at least 8 characters long and include at least one capital."
