Fishing

Give a man a fish and he will eat for a day. Teach him how to fish and he will be calling in sick a lot.

London

How can you ever be late for anything in London? They have a huge clock right in the middle of the town.

Carpenter

My husband, a carpenter, watched in amazement as his help leaned down from the second floor of the building they were working on, deliberately dropped his hammer and then climbed down to retrieve it.

"Why did you drop your hammer?" Kurt asked when the man returned.

"Well, first I accidentally dropped my pencil," the fellow replied, "but, I wanted to make the trip to get it worthwhile."

Alaska

While vacationing in Alaska, I couldn't help but notice all the warnings about bears posted in campgrounds, visitors' centers, and rest areas advising people not to feed the bears, how to avoid bears, what to do if a bear sees you, what to do if a bear attacks, and so on.

My favorite, however, was a hand-lettered sign on the door of a small gas station in a remote area. It said: "Warning! If you are being chased by a bear, don't come in here!"

Google

Before Google, there were librarians. Here are some queries posed to the poor, suffering staff of public libraries:

*A woman wanted "inspirational material on grass and lawns."

-NOTICE-

Everyone at Grand General wishes to thank you for your business by providing the "Grand Laffs" publication. If you do not wish to receive "Grand Laffs," please call, fax or e-mail us and we will honor your request.

*"Who built the English Channel?"

*"Is there a full moon every night in Acapulco?"

*"Music suitable for a doll wedding to take place between a Shirley Temple doll and a teddy bear."

*"Can the New York Public Library recommend a good forger?"

English Teacher

My English as a second language students try so hard and are so appreciative. One student paid me the ultimate compliment when he said, "You teach English good." Another assured me, "I will always forget you." And a third insisted, "I thank you from the heart of my bottom."

Mouse

My friend called me in hysterics. "I just saw a mouse in my kitchen!" she yelled. "I'm so grossed out! It's so disgusting!"

"What are you going to do?" I asked.

"I'm not sure, but you can bet I'll never eat the stuff I drop on the floor anymore."
