angels in heaven, help me get up on my horse!"

With extraordinary strength, he leaped onto the horse's back—and fell off the other side. From the ground again, he called out, "All right, just half of you angels this time!"

Vision Problems

My boss didn't come in to work today. He called this morning and said he was having a vision problem.

When I asked what was wrong, he replied, "I just can't see myself at work today."

on the court and I see the ball speeding towards me my brain immediately says, "To the corner! Backhand! To the net! Smash! Go back!"

"Really? What happens then?" the co-worker asked enthusiastically.

"Then my body says, 'Who? Me? Don't talk nonsense!'"

Airplane Ride

I was visiting the grandkids out of state and one asked if I liked riding "ON" the airplane.

It makes me wonder how little Bobby knew I didn't have the money to buy a ticket and had to hang onto the tail section during the trip.

Lamaze Class

Our Lamaze class included a tour of the pediatric wing of the hospital. When a new baby was brought into the nursery, all the women tried to guess its weight, but the guy standing next to me was the only male to venture a number.

"Looks like 9 pounds," he offered confidently.

"This must not be your first," I said.

"Oh, yes," he said, "it's my first."

"Then how would you know the weight of a baby?" I asked.

He shrugged, "I'm a fisherman."

State Trooper

A state trooper stopped a woman for going 15 miles over the speed limit.

After he handed her a ticket, she asked him, "Don't you give out warnings?"

"Yes, ma'am," he replied. "They're all up and down the road. They say, 'Speed Limit 65.'"

Old-Time Pastor

An old-time pastor was riding furiously down the road, hurrying to get to church on time. Suddenly, his horse stumbled and threw him to the ground.

Lying in the dirt, his body wracked with pain, the pastor called out, "All you

Tennis

A manager was told by his doctor to take up a sport for exercise, so he decided to play tennis. After a couple of weeks, one of his co-workers asked him how he was doing.

"It's going fine," the manger said. "When I'm
